children of the universe

Dixie Hollins High School opened the school year with fewer students permitting a six-period day and a closed campus. The tension and anxiety of last year were exchanged for a genuine listening effort that was reflected in better class participation and fewer suspensions. Fewer class periods did not mean less involvement as students adjusted to three daily schedules including a regular, homeroom, and activities schedule. Activities schedule was planned for Fridays to include an activity period at the end of the day, and enabled bus students to participate in club programs. After the disruptions of the past year constructive activities were a welcome change, and students chose "unite and stand tall" for their Homecoming theme.

People criticized the public schools for mass producing a bunch of clones who thought exactly alike. To encourage individualism rigid regulations were modified, adapting the school structure more toward the students' needs. Early graduation was a new concept designed to lessen the number of students in high school, and enable them to start college or work. Part-time students could earn their diplomas and hold jobs or go to college at the same time. Young female students were not denied the right to an education because of pregnancy, and were permitted to attend public schools. New courses including health and research science were added to the curriculum, and journalism covered mass media in an attempt to increase relevancy.

students learn effects of drugs

Science Research was added to the Dixie science curriculum in September. Students interested in science were allowed one period a day at the Science Center to work on experiments of their own preferance. Dawn Harvey did her experiment on barbituates, amphetamines and tranquilizers and their effects on mice. Biology classes did extensive research and study into the effects of hard drugs. Students often argued that marijuana was not harmful but after many discussions and movies they were not quite as sure as they had been in the beginning.

3 Robert Chatley and Steve Baker team up to explain a calculus problem.

4 Using the slide rule becomes easy for the algebra II student.

students confront complexities

Finding the answers to almost impossible problems occupied the minds of math students at Dixie. Students had to deal with equations which ranged from the elementary x+y problem to intricate calculus problems concerned with maxima and minima values involved in manufacturing. These problems often consumed enormous amounts of time, space and chalk. In its second year, the calculus class remained the most advanced math class available in Pinellas County. Other math classes attempted to ready their students for the more complicated math necessary to get a better job in today's society.

democracy: myth or reality?

"American Democracy: Myth or Reality?" represented the basic theme for American history classes. Mrs. Temerson, Mr. Martin and Mr. King each concentrated on a specific area of history for twelve weeks, then rotated the students to one of the other two teachers. American government classes studied the presidential election and how democracy operated. A poll was taken among the students to predict the winner of the election. President Nixon won the poll. Americanism vs Communism classes compared communism and the ideas of Marx with American democracy.

freedom stimulates creativity

New methods in creativity blossomed at Dixie. Students worked hard to achieve seemingly impossible goals. Drama students, Diane Puglisi and Rich Douglas, presented Terrance McNally's Next first to students then at district competition. They placed first in district and went on to state finals. Rich Douglas, the hysterical Mr. Cheever, received a best actor award. In other areas of language sophomore language teachers began a system of team teaching that gave each student freedom to work as he chose. The teachers encouraged students to be themselves and to utilize their individuality.

language promotes perception

Foreign language students strove for better understanding and communication with their chosen language. They believed that better language skills held the key to opening doors for travel, trade, and knowledge. Emphasis was put on the four basic skills of hearing, speaking, reading, and writing. Also taught were sentence structure, grammar, and pronunciation. Students learned new expressions and polished familiar ones using new books. The tape lab gave them practice in pronunciation and other exercises.

Physical Education students tried for a degree of physical fitness. After the usual vigorous workout there was a diversified schedule of activities including softball, track, volleyball, gatorball, basketball, soccer, football, gymnastics, and wrestling for the boys. Girls' classes included the same sports but substituted tennis and archery for gatorball and soccer. Drivers Education students were instructed in the techniques of defensive driving, learned the proper rules and maneuvers necessary to obtain a driver's license and gained valuable confidence in themselves.

rebs dream of future homes

In anticipation of future years girls embarked on various routes leading to a career in homemaking, foods, and nutrition. Students learned the vitamin content and nutritional value of food and how to prepare it. Girls in Modern Family Living and Child Development discussed relationships and emotions between people. Cosmetology girls spent many hours of strenuous work learning every aspect of becoming a beautician. About 90 class hours were required to obtain enough hours and experience to pass their state board exams in May.

designs produce self-fulfillment

Commercial Art, Fine Arts, and Drafting classes prepared their students for a career after graduation. Commercial Art students learned the techniques involved in advertising art and arranged window displays for homecoming and the vocational classes. Fine Arts classes concentrated on the development of individual skills in drawing, painting, sculpture, and ceramics. Drafting students turned imaginative ideas into designs and blueprints for machine parts, gears and cams, and homes. Various companies visited the drafting class to show the students jobs available in industry.

Photography and printing students applied their knowledge and skills both in and out of school. Photography classes composed a picture brochure on the industrial-technical wing for the county and after graduation students found employment locally and as far away as England.

Printing students printed the programs for Homecoming, NHS Induction and various plays. After School the students went to work for several local firms including St. Petersburg Printing Co., Central Printing, Artcraft Printing, Mercury Printing and Creative Printing.

6 Masonry students finish work on the concession stand.

masonry builds improvements

Improvement became the theme for the work performed by masonry and carpentry students. Carpentry completed the remodeling of both cosmetology and the portable classrooms and constructed shelves for the air conditioning shop. Masonry students put finishing touches on the concession stand in front of the gym, built a new patio table, and constructed a wall in automotive mechanics to separate classroom and work areas. Both masonry and carpentry students fabricated model houses to better understand problems which occur in building.

machine shops prove efficiency

Vocational classes concentrated their efforts on individual and class instruction. Machine shop students used their knowledge of lathes and drill presses to transform an old butcher case into a tool cabinet for precision instruments. Automotive mechanics students worked with the tools and machinery that may someday provide them a means to earn a living. The students learned to perform repairs ranging from oil changes to engine overhauls. Air Conditioning students built three commercial cooling and refrigeration units and rearranged their shop to improve efficiency.

icc unites, builds brotherhood

The Mr. and Ms. Ugly Contest, patio games like tug-o-war and operation football, and the coronation of Queen Charlene Sciandra typified Dixie's Homecoming Week which was highlighted by a Homecoming Game October 27 against Sarasota Riverview. Enthusiasm generated by Spirit Week and the half-time presentation of Queen and Court helped Dixie, in the face of defeat, to uphold their Homecoming theme and "Unite and Stand Tall."

council scours school for talent

Student Council participated in many projects for both school and community. Members worked during Christmas at the 'Toys for Tots Telethon' and at the Christmas Toy Shop. They had a carwash for the Schiandra-Renaud Fund. During the year they sponsored the Care-free Gum Contest, a dance and a concert. In the spring Student Council organized and presented a talent show. Senior Class kept tradition when they won the Spirit Trophy during Homecoming Week. Seniors helped in the Care-free Gum Contest and planned a graduation ceremony in which all seniors could participate including those who chose a January graduation.

Commercial Advertising Arts of VICA (Industrial and Commercial Arts), a new organization this year, competed in local and national poster contests. VICA painted the covering for football hoops, did special lettering for the cover and division pages of the Dixie Legend and designed the programs for Coronation as well as drama and choral productions. They sold Christmas decorations and personalized yearbooks for fifty cents a name. Guest speakers, field trips and attendance at state convention in St. Petersburg highlighted their activities. Fine Arts Club exhibited their work at the school art show and in county art shows. They had a candy sale and an art sale to raise money for jerseys.

Aloha! the popular greeting with which Hawaiians begin their day served as the theme around which Rojans began their year with the Aloha! Hawaiian Party. Later Black Angus served as a meeting place for their gala initiation banquet. It wasn't all fun and games, however. Hard work during Homecoming boosted Spirit Week and the Spirit Trophy which was presented to the Sr. class at coronation by Rojan President Mindy Pendleton. The Best Skit Award went to Rojans for their comedy "Twelve Years of School." deca promotes sales leadership DECA (Distributive Education Clubs of America) went to breakfast at Smalley's Restaurant once a month. At Christmas they wrapped packages at Central Plaza. Joint fund-raising projects with CBE consisted of selling refreshments at home football and basketball games and selling Dixie Hollins decals. In October Marsha Purdum, Gwen Pribble, Pat Kenny, Kevin Jackson and Phyllis Ritchie attended an officers' leadership conference in Miami. A boy and girl "student of the month" were selected and their pictures displayed on the DE bulletin board by room 113. Mr. Asfour joined Mr. Tulumaris as teachers of DE when Miss Wilkie became state supervisor of distributive education.

Cooperative Business Education (CBE) sold Dixie Hollins decals, writing pens, and popcorn at all home varsity games. Christmas projects included giving a basket of food to a needy family and having a party for the children at All Childrens' Hospital. They attended the FBLA district meeting in February and State Convention in April, where changes were made in their constitution. Audio-Tutorial Biology Club visited the Science Departments of the University of South Florida and the Clearwater Campus of St. Petersburg Junior College. Candy sales were held to raise money for much needed science equipment and projects.

Although Rebel Rouser staffers strove to produce an informative and interesting newspaper, Dixie students displayed a complete lack of interest. annual equals 'fun and games'

The Dixie Legend Staff put in a lot of hard work, connivery, worry and headaches and forfeited their Saturdays, activity periods and uncounted spare minutes as they struggled to meet deadlines. Work began on the 17-page opening section in March, 1972, when the theme was selected, the cover was designed and many of the opening pictures were planned. It continued through the summer when staffers met with Mrs. Young to schedule pictures, select proofs and design layouts. Early planning was necessary to meet a November deadline on color and other deadlines in December, January and February when 72-96 pages were sent each month. Pictures, copy blocks, headlines and captions were not the only worries for money was a big concern. Students were charged eight dollars for a book that cost over ten to print. Patrons, candy sales and names on covers were sold, and a carwash was launched as a final effort. However, all of the drudgery was balanced by the fun and good times including dinner parties several times during the year and a Christmas party where gag gifts were exchanged and Mrs. Young received a life size poster of Mark Spitz.

rebels reverse field against foes

After winning only one game the ast two years, the Rebels turned t around in 1972 ending up with a much improved 4-5-1 record. Dixie began the season by losing to powerhouse Seminole 39-19. Following a tie with St. Pete because of a bad snap from center, the Rebs lost a squeaker to Lakewood 7-6. But the team rebounded by upsetting Largo 31-13 before falling to rival Boca Ciega 24-8. After nipping Dunedin 8-7 and losing to Riverview 19-16 in the Homecoming game, a determined Hollins squad dropped a 36-30 heart-stopper to Clearwater. In finishing out the schedule, they demolished hapless Gibbs 68-7 and surprised Northeast 29-16. Once again the Moore-Williams combination led a strong running game. Junior Jim Leavitt took over the quarterbacking reins midway in the year and came through in many clutch situations. With the efforts of linemen Karl Brock, Steve Ecenia and Dave Wilson, along with the receiving talents of juniors Bill Dasher and Rick Nicholson, the Rebels were a potent offensive unit. A tight defensive team was anchored by Willie Dean, Rick Headly, Matt Hallam, Rusty Leavitt, Kenny Thomas and Al Williams. With many juniors returning and a fine JV team moving up, hopes remained high for the Rebels to return to football prominence.

Junior Varsity Football got off to a fast start downing Seminole 12-6 and shutting out St. Pete 20-0. Following a 16-6 loss to Northeast the Rebels nipped Lakewood 8-0 on Charles Seay's quarterback sneak. Coming off a 28-14 defeat by Largo, the team reeled off three straight victories defeating Dunedin 12-8, Clearwater 21-7 and smashing Boca Ciega 33-8. In the process of compiling 6-2 record many individuals performed outstandingly. Running back Matt Gaglione scored five touchdowns while Seay passed for eight scores. Defensively the team was led by Tom Phillips, Richard Stokes, Scott Facyson, Frank Conway, Dean Moore and Charlie Callier. During the year Callier scooped up fumbles for two touchdowns. Outstanding offensive linemen were Don Cox, John Gansert and John Adams.

The squad was led throughout the year by junior runners Steve Ableman, Bob Landers, Ken Stevens, and Steve Fogel, a senior. new uniforms did not help team Resplendent in new uniforms and with new glass backboards adorning the gym, the Rebels won the first game of their season by trouncing Leto 73-54. However, this was one of the few bright spots of the campaign for the squad, as they finished with a 3-23 record. The team was composed mostly of juniors. One of them, Reggie Jackson, led the team in scoring with a 12.5 per game average. Another second year player, Center Alroy Rickerson, was the team's leading rebounder and supplied an ample amount of blocked shots. Other victories came over Largo and against Leto. Coach Stergeous took over coaching duties in mid-season due to the illness of veteran Coach King. Expectations for next year are high with the return of the starting five and the moving up of a fine Junior Varsity Team.

The junior varsity was full of talent and excitement this season. The squad's teamwork and enthusiasm were evident as they compiled an 18-4 win-loss record for the year. The starting five of Carl Bryant, Charles Seay, Walt Miley, Al Williams and Milton Adams used a strong shooting and rebounding game to overcome many opponents. Adams led the team in scoring with a 14.6 per game average. Williams was the team's big man under the backboards at 6'3" and accounted for many of the team's rebounds at both ends of the floor. Miley, at 6'0", jumped inches higher in helping Williams under the basket before going outside to score on long jump shots. Bryant and Seay handled the guard positions and played the roles of playmakers in the J.V.'s balanced attack. Many of the players were moved up to the varsity at the end of the season.

Coming off a string of city championships, wrestling team lost many standout performers because of graduation, and many juniors occupied starting positions in meets throughout the season. Even with this obstacle, the hard-working Rebels turned in a 7-7 record. Junior Willie Davis was a star performer in the 135-pound class. Another junior, Winston McKenzie, recorded 12 pins in the 188-pound competition. Senior Al Williams competed in the unlimited division. Paul Krieder did well in the 129-pound class. Other fine performances by junior Ed Burgess and sophomores Dave Bogdan and Joe Krieder left expectations very high for wins next year.

Due to the loss of three starting players from last year's squad, the golf team was left with only three lettermen. The 1973 swimming team was one of balance and experience. The boys had seven returning lettermen to form the team's nucleus. In the freestyle event, seniors Elwin Kline, Mike Lane and Bob Beaudet, along with Ed Craig, Alan Nuttall and Dave Swindell were the strongest swimmers. Specialty events also weighed heavily in total points. In these Walter Bell and Ken Williams swam the difficult butterfly. Steve Hartz swam breaststroke and Ron Hartz competed in backstroke and individual medley. Terry Charles lent his talent in the diving competition. On the girls' side of the pool, returnees Jerry White, Terrill Shea, Ivey Orns and Alice MacFarlane provided leadership for a good squad. Adding strength to the team were juniors Elka Kaczmarek, Lori Skinner, and sophomores Kathy Walston, Beth and Anne Lenholt and Nacine Dudley.

1973 was a rebuilding year for both the girls' and boys' tennis teams at Dixie. With graduation taking away many standout performers, the teams were forced to field teams composed mostly of first year players. For the boys Steve Baker was the only returning letterman from last year. As he was number I seed this year, he played many opponents who were state and nationally ranked. For the girls, team Captain Lynn Diamond was the only returnee. Nancy Rossmeisl was the number I player for the girls with very good prospects for the future. This year both teams gained much needed experience which makes the future of tennis at Dixie much brighter.

In the field events, Greg Paino and Mark Gerherd competed in the shot put. Ken Stevens long jumped and John Adams threw the discus. student life couples become more prominent

The old saying, "Love makes the world go round," remained true to form at Dixie. Couples began pairing as early as the first day of school. Romances blossomed only to fade or strengthen and end in early marriage. High school class rings were replaced by first promise, engagement, and wedding rings. Although these rings were in evidence last year, students became more open about them. Administration bowed to what was; and let students hold hands.

1 St. Petersburg Times proclaims peace.

2 The end of the Viet Nam War was heralded by quiet relief as expressed by Nancy Scherwitz.

3 Some went to the airport when their POW's came home; others went to church when theirs did not come home.

4 Mindy Pendleton sits alone to read and remember with nothing but raindrops on the window.

students require peaceful time

Dixie students were no different than any other people; they all required a time to be alone. They needed a place to get away from both family and school pressures. Whether they found tranquillity sitting alone in a church or relaxing in a favorite spot, solitude was still a necessity of life. Some people enjoyed just walking and thinking to themselves and still others liked to sit in a corner and just sort out their problems or ponder questions about existence. Some enjoyed the long awaited pleasure of turning in their POW bracelets. No matter how inner peace was obtained young people still realized that it is a beautiful world.

ICC coordinated Homecoming Week under the theme "Unite and Stand Tall." Each club had a specific job to do and they did it, working together to show that old Rebel spirit. Thespians presented coronation, and numerous clubs participated in skit competition. Rojans presided over games in the patio, and Environmental Club obtained the cars for the pre-game parade. The court was presented on the field through an honor guard made up from the band. Homecoming '72 was climaxed by a close game with Sarasota Riverview winning 19-16.

dixie students 'get it together'

Fashion became anything you wanted to wear. Girls chose a variety of styles, such as smock tops, high waisted pants and short tops, jeans and "the layered look," saddle shoes, sneakers, clogs and wedges. Guys started dressing better too. They wore baggies, high waisted pants, "the layered look," jeans, vests, clogs, and shoes with big, wide heels. Hairstyles saw the long and the short of it; short and long shags on both guys and girls and Afros. Girls wore their shags long and curly or short and curly, but long straight hair was still very much in evidence. Tiny barrettes set off hairstyles and complemented clothes. POW bracelets and baby bracelets were a common sight around campus. All in all the kids dressed sharper than they have in years past.

n-school activities offer variety

epending upon the effort put orth, a Dixie student extracted oth knowledge and fun from his asses and the extras offered at chool. Interested students ttended stage presentations ncluding Next, 'Supersound,' Charlie Brown's Christmas,' and utterflies are Free, which were eld during school and in activity periods. The Asolo Theatre group presented two drama workshops, one at Boca Ciega High for several schools, and one at Dixie for drama students only. Other special activities included a lecture on self-defense for the girls, senior week and student elections.

bowling becomes popular sport

With school ending at 2:03, students still had plenty of time for their many diversified activities including bowling, swimming, working and loafing. The new Tyrone Mall became a mecca for Dixie students. Eating ice cream, buying clothes and just "cruising" occupied much of students' time. For those students who did not like ice cream there was still the old stand-by, Pass-a-Grille Beach. Others formed a bowling team composed solely of Dixie Hollins students and sponsored by Mrs. Curry.

3 Dean of Girls, Miss Joy Brown, sends an assistant to check on an absence.

4 Dean of Boys, Mr. Jim Waters, accepts absentee reports from his assistants, Glenn Wilkinson and Eddie Murph.

ruancy makes work for deans

The administration faced its first full year of tranquillity after integration, but another problem arose, the problem of truancy. The number of students out of class increased over past years, and tracking down students became almost a full-time job with Deans Waters and Brown.

This problem surfaced not only at Dixie, but on the county level as well. Since school funds are based on the number of students actually in class, truancy aggravated another problem facing all of the schools in the county, lack of money.

5 Mrs. Herrell dismisses Cindy Garlando after a schedule change.

With more and more Dixie students working, it became necessary to hire Job Coordinator, Mr. Bill Whitney. Some students were working illegally, using fake health cards, working past hours, or were too young to work. Mr. Whitney talked to employers and made sure they were not taking advantage of, or illegally working students. He also assisted students in making a budget and in scheduling classes around their job. The rest of the Guidance staff continued their fine work scheduling students and helping them with scholastic and personal problems.

Have you taken a look at yourself lately? Can you stand apart from the confusion of youth and see who you are? Your whole life is spent working toward a goal — toward your hopes and expectations. Each experience serves to enlighten and prepare you for your future. Your immediate future possibly is graduation, a break with old routines and a beginning of new ones. Summer fun will revive spirits subdued by school demands, or jobs will take the place of school. Some will tackle college life and encounter challenging situations at every turn. But whatever you do, always there remains that reaching for some ideal in life. Can you see it yet? Perhaps looking at yourself today will help you be the person you want to be tomorrow. Every so often take a step back and just observe. Will you like what you see? Strive to be happy.

A look at world affairs reveals much about attitudes and trends of our world society. Recent social upheavals, political settlements, and scientific advancements pose questions about what will happen in the future. The wave of racial disruptions spread briefly to Dixie and caused the typical rash actions and flared tempers. As in other areas of society the irrational actions of a few affected the lives of many. With the attempted assassination of Governor Wallace, one man cast the whole nations's vote. The assassinations at the Olympic Games proved that any one nation is no longer isolated but part of a whole world society. The war in Vietnam came to an unstable peace, and nations must now begin to cope with its after-effects. Science has reached the point where people must start thinking about uses of power and also about individualism. It may soon be possible to mass produce clones — hundreds of people that look exactly alike. Our generation must decide whether to allow science to exert its full capabilities, since our decisions will affect the entire world.

"Go placidly amid the noise and the haste, and remember what peace there may be in silence. As far as possible without surrender be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others, even the dull and ignorant; they too have their story. Avoid loud and aggressive persons, they are vexatious to the spirit. If you compare yourself with others you may become vain and bitter; for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans. Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism. Be yourself. Especially do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment it is as perennial as the grass. Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself. You are a child of the universe no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should. Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be. And whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul. With all its sham, drudgery and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be cheerful. Strive to be happy."

many, many thanks

Countless people deserve great thanks for their sincere efforts and time spent in compiling the 1973 Dixie Legend. In addition to the Dixie Legend Staff, many thanks are given to: Mrs. Young, for having the stamina to survive the problems and the staff; to the photographers from Bryn-Alan Studio for putting up with the hassle of taking the majority of the pictures; to Clay Mitchell and Cliff Strickland from Mr. Westbrook's Photo II class for taking candids; to Debbie Hammond and Commercial Art for special lettering throughout the book; to Chuck Eubanks and Kay Lytle for artwork; to Nicki Goetting for the cover design; to the clubs of Dixie that were so generous in their support of the yearbook budget; to Byron Kennedy from Taylor Publishing Company for his willing advice; to the St. Petersburg Times for a picture on page 14; to Crescendo Publishing Company for permission to use the poem "Desiderata" by Max Ehrmann, printed in its entirety on page 242 and in segments on division pages; and most important, to the faculty, staff, and student body for providing a purpose for this Dixie Legend.
